

Marriott Hotel, Bristol Royal

Atkinson & James were delighted to be appointed as principal contractor to transform “Walters Restaurant” in the stunning 4 star Central Bristol Hotel, within a tight three week time schedule.

The challenge was to revamp the existing restaurant into a vibrant, contemporary dining experience, ensuring an informal atmosphere for all guests.

Works consisted of the full refurbishment of the restaurant and server unit including tiling, floor and wall finishes as well as all electrical works.

The key element of the refurbishment was the creation of a new bespoke walnut panelled server area, which houses the self service, hot and cold buffet units, overall a warm and welcoming look was achieved.

THE PROJECT IN BRIEF:

- Strip-out and re-fit of all existing banquette
- Seating and server unit
- Bespoke Joinery
- Specialist decoration and finishes throughout
- Specialist lighting
